Other Important Information:

We may disclose all the information we collect to agents, affiliates, service providers, insurance support organizations and government representatives without your prior authorization in order to perform insurance functions involved in processing and servicing your application and policy, to detect and prevent fraud and to report illegal activities. Insurance law in your state may provide you additional rights.

Other Important Information for Maine customers:

You have the right to obtain access to your recorded personal information in our possession or control, to request correction if you believe the information to be inaccurate, and to add a rebuttal statement to the file if there is a dispute. You have the right to know the reasons for an adverse underwriting decision. Previous adverse underwriting decisions may not be used as the basis for subsequent underwriting decisions unless we make an independent evaluation of the underlying facts. You have the right with very narrow exceptions, not to be subjected to pretext interviews. We may not disclose your personal information with non-affiliated third parties unless you authorize us to, or if permitted by law.

Other Important Information for Montana customers:

You have the right to request a list of individuals with whom we have shared any portion of your medical information during the past three years. As part of our underwriting practices, we may obtain information from an insurance support organization. Information obtained in the preparation of these reports may be maintained by the organization and subsequently disclosed to other companies that may use the same service.

Other Important Information for North Carolina customers:

We may not disclose your Social Security Number unless you authorize us to, or if permitted by law.

Other Important Information for Vermont customers:

We will not disclose information about your creditworthiness to our affiliates and will not disclose your personal information, financial information, credit report, or health information to non-affiliated third parties to market to you, other than as permitted by Vermont law, unless you authorize us to make those disclosures. Additional information concerning our privacy policies can be found at our website or call the telephone number provided.

AK, AZ, CA, CT, GA, IL, ME, MA, MN, MT, NM, ND, NV, NJ, NC, OH, OR, VT or VA Customers:

We may obtain information about you directly from you and from other sources. That information and any other information we collect may in some circumstances be disclosed to third parties, such as agents, affiliates, service providers and others without your specific consent. In some cases, we may need your direct authorization before sharing that information. We will not share your personal information with non-affiliated third parties (or, in some circumstances, our affiliates) other than our agents or service providers unless you authorize us to share it, or the law otherwise permits us to share it. Residents have the right to access, to correct and, in some states, to delete (if incorrect) the information collected about them, except information that relates to a claim or to a civil or criminal proceeding. If you submit a request to exercise these rights, you have the right to a response within 30 days. We may refuse your request where we believe the information is correct, required to fulfill a legal obligation, necessary to protect our legal interests, or as otherwise required or permitted by law. If we refuse your request, you may have the right to file a statement regarding what you believe to be accurate and fair information and why you disagree with our refusal. If you are refused coverage or if your application is postponed, you may also have the right to receive the specific reason in writing. To exercise your rights or if you wish to have a more detailed explanation of our information practices required by your state, please call toll-free 1-800-862-6668 or visit us online at Talcott.com.
